

“...One Nation, Indivisible...”

Defend the Original, All-American Pledge of Allegiance!

11:00 a.m. Wednesday, March 24, 2004

Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, 7th & Mission streets

(NE corner, just one block south of Market St.; Easily accessible by Civic Center BART/Muni Station)

On Wednesday, March 24, 2004, Michael Newdow will present his case to the Supreme Court of the United States challenging the addition of the phrase “under God” in our Pledge of Allegiance. Those words were inserted in 1954 amid the hysteria of McCarthyism and the Cold War. Since then, millions of Atheists, Freethinkers, Humanists and others who do not embrace religion — as well as religious minorities and Christians who find such a declaration to be inappropriate — have been excluded from honestly participating in this patriotic exercise. If you are concerned about religious liberty in America, please join us in San Francisco to support Michael Newdow and urge the Court to restore the original Pledge — for ALL Americans!
